Keep in mind

Timeline

When gifting a beautiful green item, timing is essential. Plants cannot remain in their packaging for extended periods, so we recommend planning ahead to ensure timely delivery.

Transport

Flowers and plants are living items and require careful handling during transport to maintain their quality. Therefore, most of the products are shipped by pallet, even for smaller quantities.

Individual shipment

Due to factors such as temperature sensitivity and fragility, not all plants are suitable for individual shipment. Please contact us for guidance on which plants are best suited for individual shipping.

Green gifts, a brighter future.
